

MEDIEVAL PAGEANT AT SIBTON ABBEY – 17th July 1.00pm – 6.00pm.

Held in the grounds of the recently conserved and restored remains of Sibton Abbey, the event will be a day full of medieval flavour and fun – a great family day out for the start of the summer holidays. There's a hog roast in true medieval fashion with a licenced bar where mead may well be available, a medieval fancy dress competition for local school children, and music performances throughout the afternoon. There's archery for the active; hawking and a traditional medieval pastime at the stocks. Wandering monks will provide guided tours to explain the historic abbey site. The day ends with a performance of a Suffolk Mystery Play performed by C67 the drama well-known well known for their Shakespearean rags.

TICKET PRICES: Family £25; Adult £10, Child over 10 yrs £5; children under 10 yrs free. Tickets are on sale by emailing sibtonchurchfriends@gmail.com early ordering is advised because a high demand is predicted. The event celebrates 25 years of restoration of St. Peter's Church Sibton and its development for community use as a result of the founding and involvement of the Friends of St. Peter's Church Sibton.
